

Hello, welcome to the Deaf Anglicans Together website, known as DAT. We are a nationally registered charity.

We are a group of d/Deaf and hearing Christians who worship God from around the UK.

You can look at the website for more information about us.

The website have information about who we are, history of DAT, membership and information how to join, events that are to happen in the future and how you can come along and also information about events in the past. Recent events can be seen on the "News" page.

We always welcome new members, if you are interested in joining us please email us to leave a message or use our contact page.
